"Kinbaku" is Japanese rope bondage using "Shibari" tying techniques. Kinbaku was used as an instrument for restraining sinners. Once tied, it enhanced her desire to show all her sins, but not to retain her gently. She craved the intensity of the tying to rekindle her sinful memories as she is captured with the rope. This saved her from the solitude of her guilt. She wished that she could stay bound within the rope and the wax until her whole being melted into the darkness. * In order to highlight this strange world, the photographs are made in black and white.*
