The Students' Companion Caribbean Edition The Cambridge Companion to English Novelists Cambridge University Press In this Companion, leading scholars and critics address the work of the most celebrated and enduring novelists from the British Isles (excluding living writers): among them Defoe, Richardson, Sterne, Austen, Dickens, the Brontës, George Eliot, Hardy, James, Lawrence, Joyce, and Woolf. The significance of each writer in their own time is explained, the relation of their work to that of predecessors and successors explored, and their most important novels analysed. These essays do not aim to create a canon in a prescriptive way, but taken together they describe a strong developing tradition of the writing of fictional prose over the past 300 years. This volume is a helpful guide for those studying and teaching the novel, and will allow readers to consider the significance of less familiar authors such as Henry Green and Elizabeth Bowen alongside those with a more established place in literary history. The Cambridge Companion to the History of the Book Cambridge University Press An accessible and wide-ranging study of the history of the book within local, national and global contexts. The Cambridge Companion to English Literature, 1830-1914 Cambridge University Press A volume of essays on Victorian themes, genres and authors, aimed at students and lecturers. The Cambridge Companion to the Body in Literature Cambridge University Press This Companion offers the first systematic analysis of the body in literature, from the Middle Ages to the present day. A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Routledge Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries, it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years. Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically-arranged entries for 50 English-language short story writers from around the world. Since the first monolingual dictionary appeared in 1604, the genre has sparked evolution, innovation, devotion, plagiarism, and controversy. This comprehensive volume presents an overview of essential issues pertaining to dictionary style and content and a fresh narrative of the development of English dictionaries throughout the centuries. Essays on the regional and global nature of English lexicography (dictionary making) explore its power in standardising varieties of English and defining nations seeking independence from the British Empire: from Canada to the Caribbean. Individual essays in Part II introduce and contribute to important critical conversations about specific tragedies. Topics include The Revenger's
